INDIA OF MY DREAMS

“IT IS MY UNSHAKABLE BELIEF THAT INDIA’S DESTINY IS TO DELIVER THE MESSAGE OF NON-VIOLENCE TO MANKIND.”

By M.k. Gandhi

India is famous all over the world. IT is famous for non-violence, “Dharma & Karma”, Yoga & Meditation, its festivals, tourist places & food. India is mainly known for peace & non-violence.

“Swachh Bharat” India’s current beautiful abhiyan. This step is taken because in many places people just throw away plastic bags, vegetable peels, papers, cans etc. on the street.

This is one of my dream to built clean India” in which a new life can start without any disease.

I often see many beggars roaming around, begging for money & food. I feel very pretty on them.

I want to stop seeing beggars in India. This is another dream for me towards India.

“Every feature stands on a hope,
Let’s together stand for this.

LIVE INDIA
LOVE INDIA.”

~ My Dream For India ~

I am happy with the condition of our country. With the love, care & share. But I want to add something new. Something good for us. Which is to eradicate poverty from our country. Take an example for yourself, with no food, water, shelter to live. We can think how hard the life can be, without even a drop of water to drink. We have to thank god as we have atleast a house to live our life, water & food. Now when we are rich and having a comfortable life, we don't think about the poor, their lifestyle. Better than ignoring them it is much better to eradicate poverty.

INDIA OF MY DREAMS

Yes, I think that India can be a better place. India should be crowned the king of kings. Also known as Bharat and to the rest of the world as India, the cradle of life, Mother of nature, grandmother of tradition and great - grand mother of legends and rich heritage. India has many wins but very few fails. Not only India is the birthplace of Hinduism, Buddhism, and Jainism and even Parsis! Wow! That is almost half of the world's religion! India is also one of the world leaders for the world peace organization. Yoga was also born in India by Vedic Priests whereas Iyengar Yoga was invented by B. K. S. Iyengar.

India is just perfect the way it is. The only thing that stops it from being perfect is that it has only a few flaws here and there. And those flaws are just a few. I really like the fact the people are running free schools and educating children of poor families. C'mon people, we must donate to charity and make people aware of the harm they are causing. Brothers and sisters, please, join hands and at least give a few rupees to charity. The Government is doing good work setting up healthcare centers and many more things around the country. I really hope there are more schools for the poor than I think. Many good movements were also launched in India. The 'Make in India' project was a recent project launched in India. It features Indian production to increase opportunity for work. So we all should support the Government of India and its Policy to help. It becomes Pollution-free, Peaceful and World Leader!!

INDIA OF MY DREAMS

I really like my country that is INDIA. India is a very beautiful country with many religions and languages. My dreams about my country is very high. I will be telling all about it. The dreams I have dreamed are as follows:

Having sky scrapers:

The country which I live currently is Bahrain is also a beautiful and is a small country but it is one of the developed countries. In Bahrain there are very big sky scrapers like the Bahrain trade center,

The pearl financial harbor etc. My dream of India is that my country would be the best country to have the tallest sky scrapers in the world, even bigger than BURJ KHALIFA.

Having the best transportation in the world:

I have visited a country which is a global hub the UAE. In UAE there are taxi's available all around the country with all safety. Even the buses are full of safety with all equipment like the wifi, televisions etc. In India there are also like this facilities but not provided in all states and not taking care of it regular lily. This equipment and safety is provided in probably all GCC countries.

Having opportunities for poor people and uneducated:

In UAE there are many taxis. They provided taxi's mostly to every uneducated and poor person in UAE.

In the year 2020, they are going to add 3,000 taxis.

In India there are a lot of taxis but there are not given to every person or there some instances that poor people have to pay to government people to get a taxi's which is not nice. These people are eating are nation. This dream is very important for me because without it our nation could not survive or it will never develop.

Having biggest roads and strict road and traffic rules:

In Bahrain and Dubai, there are very big roads. When I visited Dubai and I was going to Abu Dhabi I saw that there were 6 lanes to pass. In Bahrain there are 5 lanes in highways. The rules of in Dubai are very strict. For instance, there are automatic toll taxes in bridges, if you pass through a bridge you get the ticket that you have to pay when you have to give some money every year to register the car. In you went are not following the rule, you will get the ticket when you get to pay the money for registration for the car. I dream for India to have the biggest roads in the world and the strictest rules in the world, so there will be no accidents and no loss of life.

Being the cleanest country in the world:

In Bahrain and UAE there are contracts given to companies to clean the areas of the country. In India there are contracts given to company's but contract company's do not do the work and just take the money. My dream of INDIA is to be the cleanest country in the world so there would be no diseases breaking out.

Having the most number of schools in the world:

Bahrain is one of the first country's to have the earliest school. Bahrain is a small country but there are so many schools. There is an area named EDUCATIONAL AREA which has Bahrain's most number of schools. In the morning there is a very big line of cars and buses waiting to drop students to the schools which are inside the area. My dream of India to have the most number of schools in the world and also to have the most number of schools in a village.

A country to have most number if lights:

In Bahrain and Dubai there are lots of lights in the streets and in highway. The country looks very beautiful. I want India to have the most number of lights in streets and highways.

Having electricity produced ecologically:

In USA there is electricity produced by water and nuclear atom which doesn't cause that much pollution than the gas and patrol. I want India to have dams which India has but to have most number of dams and nuclear atoms which will make India the first and biggest country to produce the ecological electricity in larger amounts.

Having petrol and electric cars than diesel cars:

Europe have one of the world's best country to have most of the ecological cars. My dream of India is to have most number of ecological cars and petrol cars because petrol pollutes environment less than diesel. So petrol and electric cars will pollute our environment very less.

Reducing the prices of petrol and electricity:

For people to buy petrol and ecological cars, government have to reduce the taxes on petrol and electricity to reduce pollution. This will affect the wealth of the government for some time but slowly it will be the same as it was before like government will not face problems of wealth.

I have a lot of dreams for my country. This are some of the factors which I want to improve my country. I wish the government implement this because with this changes we Indians will be the best and unbeatable in the world. When I will become big I would serve my country till my death.
