

Editorial Note

Dear Readers,

We are very happy to publish our fifth magazine of the academic year 2016-2017. The E-Magazine has found many writers who have promoted it to a new level. The E-Magazine has got new designs. We take an immense pleasure to thank NMS-DPS on behalf of the entire editorial board. This magazine is a collection of poems, articles and stories from our artists, poets and writers who are the creative talents of NMS DPS. This year, we have made another new beginning hoping to achieve more in the years to come...

Read and Enjoy,

. Kamaleswar Sivasankaran VII-E

Rendezvous with the future

To rendezvous with my future,
I would like to be,
One with a great mind,
Mind that soars as high,
As the sky wherein he flies,
Filled with care and responsibility.

To rendezvous with my future,
I would like to be,
One with a great mind,
Of knowledge and understanding,

A heart that swims in the river of wisdom,
Or travels in the city of learning,

But most of all,
I would like to be,
One with a great heart,
Of honesty, sincerity and truth.
For he alone will re-live life,
With the joy of understanding,
The peace of comradeship,
And the kindness of heart.

Bahrain

Bahrain is a land full of pearls,
All the boys and girls,
Have different culture and tradition,
Abayats and thobe are their fashion.

Humus and dates are the delicious cuisines,
Bahrain is the best place I have ever seen.

Their mother tongue is Arabic,
And their language is fantastic.

I'm living here since many years,
Which are the years of joy

Responsibility

At the doormat of my front door,
I saw the message by responsible,
And I went past it each day,
Till one moment it made me think.

To know what it means,
To be responsible
And am I able to Do it?

Don't worry my friend,
It's not so hard as you think,
You just have to take some little steps,
And you can be responsible.

Close, if you open something,
Put of, if you put on something.
Place it back, if you took something,
That's what the responsibility means.

The world is full of challenges,
And we have to face them all,
By always being responsible,
We can achieve long.

Responsibility

Responsibility is the key to achieve success in our lives,

Responsibility is a duty towards everything, It has its own beauty which shines like anything.

Responsibility is to respect everyone, understand time value without hearting anyone.

Summer

Summer is here! Summer is here!

Let's eat ice-cream or let's eat a chocolate,

Let's drink a cold-drink , let's drink a juice

Let's switch on the "AC" or let's switch on the fan

Let's play "football" or let's play "cricket"

Let's feel the freshness of the huge, bright "Sun"

Summer

Summer is coming soon, Summer is coming soon

Its said we have to play indoors soon.

We can eat ice-creams, drink coldrinks, swim in the swimming pool play with rings.

Come let's have a lot of fun in this season because there is no season like summer

Summer Season

Summer brings us a nice warm sun.
Summer, Summer almost here.
I pour on some lotion
And rub it on.

And its just perfect for my summer skin
On my bike or in the pool,
A seep of water keeps me cool.
We go to the beach and find seashells in the sand.

We also go swimming and do fishing and have lots of fun
Summer is the best season.
